

Kolbus Management Change

Kai Büntemeyer, who has been managing the family owned company for many years, is leaving the management of Kolbus GmbH & Co. KG on 31.01.2019.

Mr. Büntemeyer took over the management of Kolbus in an economically difficult time for the company in 1997 and quickly initiated positive changes and development.

Initially as part of a 2 man management team, and since 2003 as sole managing director, he has navigated Kolbus through the structural changes of the worldwide graphic arts industry. Kai Büntemeyer has been a shareholder of Kolbus since 2003.

The shareholders of Kolbus express their sincere thanks to Kai Büntemeyer for his remarkable merits and contribution during his employment with Kolbus.

The successor of Kai Büntemeyer is Wilfried Kröger.

Mr. Kröger has worked for Kolbus GmbH & Co. KG since 1986. He has more than 25 years of management experience in sales and manufacturing at the special machine construction company in Rahden.

Kolbus GmbH & Co. KG, headquartered in Rahden, Westphalia, in northern Germany, is proud of a long tradition of engineering excellence. The company, with around 750 employees, 150 apprenticeships in the Kolbus Ausbildung GmbH. Founded in 1775, Kolbus has been supplying paper processing machinery since 1900. The company built a world reputation for its highly automated bindery machines.

Today, the Kolbus Special Machinery business unit engineers machinery and systems for the production of book cases and packaging made from paper and cardboard, and corrugated board.

Apart from the main plant in Rahden, Kolbus also operates production plants in Krostitz near Leipzig/Germany, in Kalamazoo/Michigan and Houghton Regis, England.
